Dear Students, Parents, Guardians and other interested parties,
We are very excited that next week starts the beginning of our 2009 Spring-Early Summer Semester here at TALL! As in the past we have some things to remind you of and also want to be certain that those of you that are new will have a clear picture of how your class will be run.

Please be sure that if you have had any changes in address, phone numbers or medications that you let the staff here at TALL know. We want your safety to be a top priority and keeping your files up to date will help us in case of an emergency.
